

2 Corinthians 5:16-6:1

1. What stood out to you about the text? Was there anything you had not noticed before?
2. What does it mean to be an ambassador for a nation? If we are to be ambassadors of reconciliation, how does that look in practice?
3. When we desire reconciliation with others, what keeps us from pursuing it? How many of those barriers we face are in us, not in the one with whom we seek reconciliation?
4. Paul calls the Corinthians to think about Christ's work of reconciliation for us. What makes that work unique? How might that inspire us to seek forgiveness and wholeness in our relationships with our fellow Christians? Non-believers?
